OMG! Can You Believe This?!

Create a text conversation between two characters in the story. Be sure to include character names, how they are involved, and details about what is going on in the story. Write how you think they would text-- slang words, hashtags, abbreviations, etc. On the back of the paper, explain how this conversation pertains to the characters and story.

The form consists of a large rectangular border. Inside, there are eight speech bubbles arranged in a staggered, alternating pattern. The first bubble is on the left side, the second is on the right side, the third is on the left, the fourth is on the right, the fifth is on the left, the sixth is on the right, the seventh is on the left, and the eighth is on the right. Each bubble is a rounded rectangle with a small tail pointing to the right or left, indicating the direction of the message.
